Sabin Oral Sunday Is Big Success

Sabin Oral Sunday in Antioch can be rated a "thrilling success", according to a news letter from Elmer R. Kadison, M.D., chairman of the Polio Advisory Committee of Lake County and Dr. Arthur G. Baker, co-chairman.

4,767 doses of the vaccine were administered during the day at the Antioch Community High School. Dr. James Kopriva, local Medical Chairman, said that Antioch had a better turn-out, percentage-wise than the rest of Lake County. An overall percentage of 50% of Lake County residents received the vaccine, while 57% of the Antioch residents participated.

Dr. Kadison, Dr. Baker and James Bickell, Lake County Pharmaceutical Association, extended thanks to Donald Poulter, volunteer chairman of the Antioch program, for the excellent organization of the program in Antioch. Dr. Kopriva commented that plenty of workers had been provided to handle the mechanics of the vaccine administration, and that there was no waiting line at any time during the day, in spite of the fact that thousands received the vaccine. The busiest hours at the High School were from 2-3 p.m. and between 4 and 5 p.m.

The vaccine was given in a small amount of water in a paper cup. Volunteer workers from local clubs assisted in filling out registration forms and directing people to tables where the vaccine was dispensed. Local doctors and Tony Stanich, pharmacist, were in attendance during the administering of the vaccine.

Plans are already being made for the second S.O.S. program, on December 8. Those who took the vaccine Sunday will receive the second dose on that day. Those who didn't receive the vaccine last Sunday can take the first dose on December 8, and contact their doctors for the second dose.

A donation of 50¢ was asked for each dose of vaccine, but no one was turned away if they did not have the money.

New Hospital Directors Call On Local Groups For Help

Antioch members of the Countryside Hospital Board met with representatives of local civic groups and clubs at the Antioch Community High School Tuesday night (Oct. 15). Purpose of the meeting was to inform the local groups on the plans and progress of the fund drive, and to provide representatives with information on both the proposed hospital and the fund drive.

Representatives of about 15 local groups were present at the meeting. Board members asked for volunteer workers to assist in the re-cavass of Antioch Township. Board members estimate about 50 per cent of the residents of the township have been contacted for pledges. It is hoped that the re-cavass can be completed before Christmas.

Mrs. Edith Elms, member of the Hospital Board, said a meeting of workers for the drive will be held Thursday, November 7, at Antioch Community High School. Further information on the meeting will be released at a later date.

Election of Directors
At a meeting held October 8 in the Lake Villa School, Countryside Hospital Association voted to amend the Constitution, permitting new members to be elected Directors.

The new directors are representatives from all four townships, bringing the total of Board members to 25. The Board now consists of five directors from the four townships, and five directors at large.

The members elected to the Board represent the social, business and industry groups in the county. Dr. W. C. Petty, general chairman of the campaign said, "with the addition of these prominent people to the board of directors, the building of Countryside Hospital will be accomplished that much sooner."

The newly elected members are: Walter Atkinson, former three time sheriff of Lake County; William Brook, president of the State Bank of Antioch; Joseph Brell, retired construction executive of Sears, Roebuck & Co.; Mrs. Ellen Bywell, member Cooperatives Group; William Dixon, Vice-president, Lake Villa Bank; Richard Daniels, officer, State Bank of Antioch.

Mrs. Edith Elms, Chairwoman of Countryside Woman's Activities; Mrs. Kay Elchorn, member Co-operative Woman's Group; Arthur Gleese, plumbing contractor, Round Lake Beach; Mrs. Joyce McCleod, member Co-operative's Woman's Group; Dr. W. C. Petty, general chairman of Countryside campaign; John Romer, Antioch Insurance broker; Marshall Schroeder, president of Lake and publishers; Arthur Seckatz, president of A. W. Seckatz Builders; Edward Vos, president of Antioch Lumber Co., and Winthrop Lyman, public relations executive, Portland Cement Co. of Chicago, who was re-elected.

Election of Officers
Election of officers of the Countryside Hospital was held Monday, October 14, at the Lake Villa Elementary School.

Robert Ringa, Lake Villa, was elected president of the hospital, replacing Eugene Walaszek. Mr. Ringa is a funeral director, and most recently served the hospital as 2nd vice president and also on three committees. Mr. Ringa praised retiring president Eugene Walaszek for his "unselfish efforts" during his term.

Mr. Ringa said his committee appointments would be made shortly and all fund-raising plans pushed forward with full speed.

Other officers elected for a one-year term were: Warren Brown, 1st vice president; John Romer, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Jane Rundgren, secretary; B. J. Hooper, treasurer and Mrs. Joyce McCleod, historian.

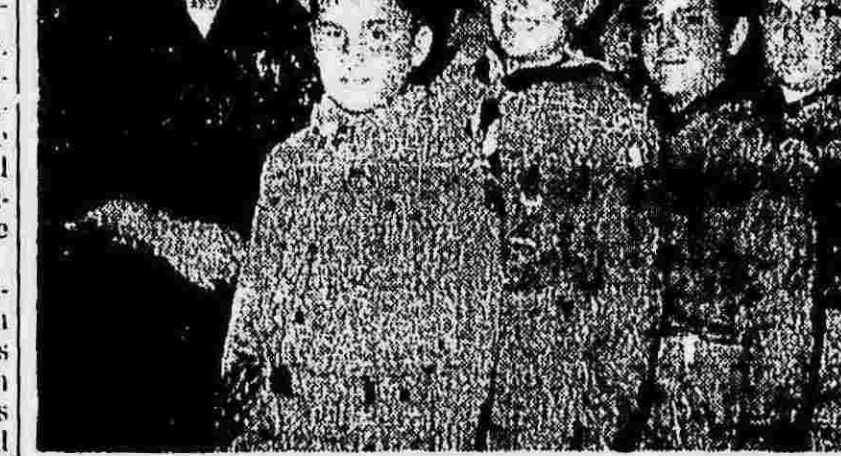

The proceeds of the annual dinner dance given by the Deep Lake Woman's Auxiliary will go to the Hospital fund this year. Mrs. Norman James, president of the auxiliary has announced, "We are expecting about 350 people to attend." Mrs. James said, "Although this is our annual dance, we are hopeful that people throughout the entire community will attend. We cannot think of a better opportunity for people to enjoy themselves and at the same time support the Countryside campaign."

The dinner dance will be held November 9 in the VFW Post in Lake Villa. Turkey or beef dinners will be served and Jack Bauer's orchestra will supply the music. Tickets may be obtained by contacting Mrs. James.

Dance Band to Play at Downey
The Antioch High School Dance Band will play a concert at Downey Hospital on October 22.

The band, which numbers about 18 pieces, is made up of students. They play mainly popular music, and provide music for many of the school's dances.

The new Palette, Masque and Lyre Theatre will open with a real "First-Nighter" program, scheduled for November 15.

The theatre will be opened with the first performance of "Night Must Fall." Dress for the evening will be semi-formal, with a dinner party following the performance. "Night Must Fall" will be staged on four nights: Friday and Saturday, Nov. 15 and 16, and Nov. 22 and 23. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Many members of the community are assisting in the renovation of the theatre. The Antioch Art Guild is aiding the PM&L, and Patrons and Angels are assisting with cash contributions. The club has decided to confer honorary "Life Memberships" to those contributing $100 or more.

Preparations are being made for a full year around season of "live" shows. The purpose of the organization is to become a community institution serving the area in all fields of art and culture and the best in entertainment.

Urge Students To Learn Job Openings
Pupils will have a day off from school in Lake County this Friday. Many of them will spend the day at St. Therese hospital, participating in Medical Careers Day.

The program is presented to acquaint high school pupils with the many careers open in the medical field. Most students are unaware of the many jobs for which they can train in this field outside of a career as a doctor or a nurse.

The program is sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Lake County Medical Society. Mrs. James Kopriva is the Antioch representative of the Auxiliary.

All students, parents and guidance counselors who might be interested are urged to attend the program, which includes a tour of various departments of St. Therese Hospital. Students should bring a sandwich for lunch. Dessert and beverage will be furnished by the Auxiliary.

Club Gets Permit for Trap Shoot

The request for re-zoning of land to be used for club activities by the Northern Illinois Conservation Club was approved by the County Board of Supervisors last Thursday.

The Conservation Club asked that a portion of the Club grounds, south of Rte. 173 at Channel Lake, be rezoned from R-4, residential, to P-Farming. They also asked for a permit to operate a private gun club for trap and skeet shooting on the property.

The land in question is the old Channel Lake Country Club. It is owned by the Gifford family. The Club has renovated the building on the property for use as a club house.

The Conservation Club has been active in promoting the teaching of conservation in the schools in the area, and in educating Boy Scouts and other youths of the area in conservation.

Grass Lake To Vote on Additions To School Building

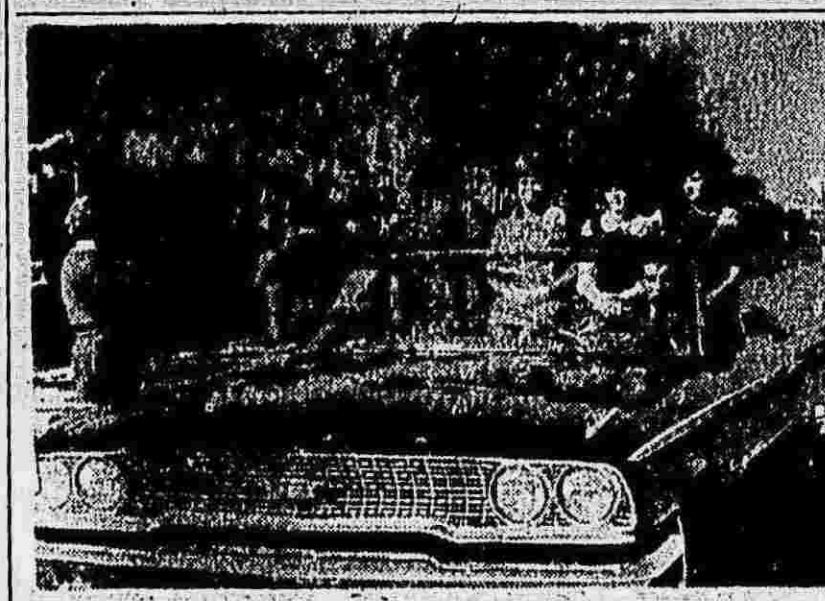

Voters in the Grass Lake School District will be called on to vote on two separate propositions for an addition to the school building.

One proposal will ask the voters to vote for or against a bond issue of $68,000.00 to construct a gymnasium as an addition to the school building. The other proposal will ask the voter to vote for or against an issue of $130,000 to construct a gymnasium and four classrooms.

Both proposals, of course, could be defeated, or either one could be approved. It is even possible that voters, possibly confused by the

EDITORIAL

It's National Newspaper Week

October 18 to 19 is National Newspaper Week. This week is also, coincidentally, the first birthday of our Shopper's Guide and the second birthday of Annie Mae.

National Newspaper Week is our chance, of course, to "blow our own horn". If this were, say, National Pickle Week, we should feel it our bounden duty to inform the public on the virtues of pickles. So, naturally, during National Newspaper Week, we feel it our duty to remind the public of the virtues of newspapers—and, particularly, of our newspaper.

Our Shopper's Guide, a mere babe in arms, is, of course, a crass commercial proposition. True, it serves the public by bringing them, free of charge, news of the latest and best in bargains, in the most readable and attractive form that our expert printers can devise. It serves the advertiser by reaching the buyer. But, rather shamefacedly, we admit it is designed largely to serve US, by bringing in enough money so that we can afford to print news of non-profit organizations, pictures and news of local people and affairs, and all the other features which go to make up a paper. This being National Newspaper Week, we'll let you in on some of the carefully guarded secrets of newspapers, some facts the public never suspects. Newspapers do NOT make money selling newspapers. Honest.

No, newspapers make money by selling ads. The number of inches of news in a paper must be carefully balanced with the number of inches of ads, or eventually the paper will go broke, and then where are you?

Well, exactly where are you? Supposing, say, that your town could not support a local paper. What services would you miss?

You'd miss news of local people and affairs, of course. A large daily can't afford to print local items—they reach too many readers who would be totally uninterested in these items.

You'd miss the announcements of club meetings, local PTA groups, news of your Boy and Girl Scouts, the reminders of local affairs that are coming up, the complete coverage of school news and local athletic events. You'd miss seeing YOUR name, and YOUR picture, and your son's and daughter's and neighbors in YOUR local paper.

You'd miss Annie Mae. For a two-year old infant, she makes some pretty penetrating statements, doesn't she?

And you'd miss Harry Stern's "What's Cookin'?" You just never know what startling bit of information Harry's going to come out with. Who else is going to remind you when Arbor Day is?

And we hope you'd miss our editorials, particularly those on purely local affairs. Like this one. We enjoy being part of your town, and serving the best we can. We hope you enjoy that service, and that we can improve it. And this being National Newspaper Week, we'd welcome letters from readers telling us what they'd like to see in their local paper during the coming year, that is not at present included in it's make-up. We'll be looking forward to hearing from you.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, The Antioch News:

Dear Sir:

20th Century Morality or is nothing Sacred?

It seems to be the normal process or progress of our society to be exposed to—on radio, tv, and in the press—to sounds or sights that when we first see or hear them we are displeased, dismayed, and even shocked—but then with continuous repetition we pay little attention to, and even enjoy it. But this process never makes something that is in bad taste or irreverent, right?

What I am referring to is the cursing and swearing (that writers insist is realism), and the growing trend toward using the Holy Scriptures irreverently. Again, some will insist that this is freedom of speech and press—but what they forget is their freedom exists only so long as they do not hurt or harm others while exercising this right—with abuse.

As they do not hurt or harm others while exercising this right—with abuse. I can remember years ago, when radio presented a Charlie McCarthy-Edgar Bergen comic version of the Garden of Eden with Mae West—and the hue and cry that followed all over the country. But as time went on people ceased to even raise an eyebrow when free speech became filled with cursing and swearing, and we even have former President Truman to thank for raising its acceptance in high places—in public; as he almost seems to enjoy being quoted with lusty speech—though this is usually the crutch for those who lack the ability to express themselves adequately without its use.

Now on radio and tv, this is all part of realism, so that hardly a day passes that some tv show, and very good shows, most of them, may use bad language to express this realism. Sure we have it in theaters and nightclubs—but you have a choice of going to hear or see this form of entertainment, while tv and in the press (which enters our homes by the front door or living rooms) it is thrust upon us without warning—and the minds of our growing children.

A week ago I saw a new comedian on a top tv show who presented a comic version of Noah and the flood. Oh, he was great, and very funny—if you forgot who he was addressing his humorous remarks to! And I doubt that few if any bothered to voice their objection to the performance. Everyone is too busy or broadminded and modern these days. But to many people, who consider the Bible to be the Holy Word of God (complete with its record of good and bad people, because to be complete—all must be recorded), but not for irreverent use or abuse.

And so it continues. This week I read a poem in your paper, that was well expressed, as to her feelings on government handouts, which she has a right to express—BUT to take the 23rd Psalm, which is one of the most beloved chapters in the Bible for both the Christians and Jews alike, to express her feelings in (or for that matter any other verse) was in my opinion—and I hasten to add—not only my opinion, but also that of many others, whether they take the time to object or not, was in bad taste and irreverent. I know some will be saying a "Holy Joe" when they read this—SO BE IT! A silent objection is not always enough, sometimes you must speak up for what you believe, even if you are criticized for it. I have also wondered if more would be said or done, if she had begun her poem with "Oh say can you see"—or "Four score and seven years ago," etc.—how unpatriotic it would have seemed to many. Why we even have laws to prevent and punish people who show a disrespect for the flag or other great American Traditions, that we hold dear—or don't you remember when a prominent Negro musician was fined for jazzing up the Star Spangled Banner? What a pity to see a great nation like ours continue to lower or allow others to lower the moral standard that we once had, in the eyes of our children and the rest of the world. One thing sure—we can never plead ignorance!

A Resident

Dear Editor:

Here is my answer to the Psalm of the 20th Century: An Ode to the Self-Made Man?

Count all of your blessings—count them every one! Then be sure you don't forget Where you got them from!

Now, if you think that you have gotten all that you've got From the sweat of your brow—just a minute—here's another thought.

It's by the Grace of God You have your health, wealth and your home. That maybe, someday YOU may need The government loan!

You'll never know, unless your world falls apart.

What a blessing it is That the government HAS a heart!

It's true that some take all that's free—have no shame; But why must ALL those who need help be condemned—take the blame?

Please rest assured, that it's no pleasure—to be in need—to accept your grudging measure.

It's also true, there is Joy in giving help to another! And if you do not feel it, then I am sorry for you, brother!!

The Moral is this: That Pride comes before the fall!

Tomorrow is another day, —YOU may need the government dole! —One Who Knows

To the Public—Friends and Neighbors:

We, the employees of the Regal China Company, would like to express our feelings toward our company.

Some of us have worked a number of years in this plant, some a shorter time, but we wish to state that we have never been dissatisfied with our jobs or the working conditions.

When I was in high school I worked part-time. When the Company was slack instead of laying a number of people off, they took time and patience to cut everyone down to a few hours, so that everyone would draw a check. Out supervisors are not only bosses, but friends. They will take much time and patience to be friendly, to teach us our work and to create a pleasant atmosphere.

The office force always greets us with a smile and a friendly word. They work very hard to find ways to benefit their employees. Our company offers us many benefits such as:

Insurance Plans
Free flu shots
A two week paid vacation after two years work

Also, steady employment and reasonable wages, raises, and hours.

When work is slow in one department we can work in another department that needs help instead of being sent home.

We have clean, well lighted rest rooms and a clean, neat lunch room which is for our use during our free time.

To myself and to many other employees Regal China has proved to be a good company, with reasonable wages, good benefits, and a friendly atmosphere in which to work. We wish to extend to our employers our sincere gratitude and appreciation for their full consideration and integrity in handling affairs pertaining to our welfare.

Sincerely,

We the employees

Along The Way

with ANNIE MAE

Many a parent in Antioch has wondered how the infamous liquor teen-traps in Lake County continue to operate. Speculations run the gamut from delinquent teens and neglectful parents, to unconscious law officers. This writer, however, cannot help but wonder if over-protective authority might also have a bearing. Could we possibly be driving our teenagers into the open arms of those joints? Must a teenager always be bent on study and serious matters? Whatever happened to Noah Webster's word F-U-N? Think Mr. and Mrs. Authority, how many times did you participate in a snake dance? And how much lethal damage did it create? How high would your team spirit rise at a water-soaked bonfire? Where would you turn if every adult who professes to know better (only by past experience), squelches your desire to prove your ability to act as a self-respecting citizen? Yes, even these beer-palaces we (as adults) hate with a vengeance have something to be said for them! They treat Mr. and Miss Teen as the adults they so long to be! Their stock-in-trade is understanding. Profitable it may be, but how about you and I starting a non-profit organization that has the same thing to offer? Fun, excitement and acceptance as a real addition to the human race!

THE LATEST REPORT: Joe and Marilyn Sterbenz have good reason to question the accuracy of the L. C. Tax Collector's new I.B.M. equipment! First it was bad enough to be billed for a piece of land they do not nor ever have owned, but when their name appeared on the delinquent list for the same piece of property, Man that Makes Them Mad!

Dick Stroner was a real surprised honored guest at the Charcoal House last week, as he retired as Scoutmaster. Scouts will still benefit from his vast experience however, for he will remain on the Council. . . . They sure named that C. of C. Number Hunt right, those poor folks hunted, and hunted, and hunted and hunted with too many of them having nary a thing for their efforts. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mortensen had that big white bird checking their address for a future fundle delivery.

THE LAST DROP: Why didn't the announcer at the Antioch E.V. game speak up and tell everyone that the combined H. S. and Lake Villa G. S. band number was the work of two fine directors, who also happened to be father and son: Joe and Thala Rush? We think they deserved some recognition! . . . Those two M.D.'s down on the sidelines at the same game were not wearing hearing aids, but were tuned in on that thrilling Illinois game from where they Alma Mater.

Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Berke are touring parts of the Mediterranean and possibly Jerusalem and Israel.

DID YOU HEAR: About the guy who makes 12 ft. poles for people you can't reach with a 10 ft.

Try me, Annie Mae

BY LOU BURNIN

Can the people of Zion who are reportedly trying to create a world seaport in the community really be serious in this raid on the state and federal treasuries?

Most of the great harbors of the world have some natural protection from open water, but in Zion a harbor would have to be built from scratch since the only apparent asset is Lake Michigan itself.

This would be of no great concern outside of Zion if it weren't that the bulk of any money necessary to create an economically sound seaport would have to come from the state and federal governments.

A substantial amount of federal and state money has already been poured into the Waukegan Port District, but except for a couple of cement silos and some new runways at the Waukegan Airport we fail to see where there has been a great deal of improvement in the lake front.

If the state has funds available for local boondoggles maybe some should be spent in the Chain O' Lakes area to make possible the full utilization of this area as a great recreation center.

Republican mayor hopefuls in Waukegan are watching the deliberations of the reapportionment commission with undue interest because of wishful thinking, that Mayor Robert Sabonjian, the prominent Dema mayor, will be a candidate for the legislature if an east-west division is made.

Democrat members of the commission are pushing for a split that would make Waukegan, Shields, and Deerfield Townships one representative district and the rest of Lake County a second district.

Such a split would mean the election of two and possibly three new representatives of the commission, but time is stretching out.

The commission had hoped to move into the first phase of the courthouse complex by June, 1965, but this timetable will have to undergo some revision if a decision isn't forthcoming soon.

It's too bad for Coroner Robert H. (Mickey) Babcox that there isn't a sheriff's race coming up this spring since his work on the mutilated torso murder has brought him some well-deserved recognition.

There seems to be a smouldering battle for credit for the investigation between Babcox and Sheriff Charles Larson with some newspaper accounts stressing Larson's role in the investigation and others stressing the work done by Babcox.

Regardless of who gets top credit, it would seem that there is room for plenty of credit to all departments for a fine bit of police work.

Is State Senator Robert Coulson really going to make a surprise announcement at his testimonial dinner at the Illinois Beach Lodge Nov. 10, or are the rumors about a special announcement just a gimmick to hype ticket sales?

There ought to be more women in Washington working for the government. Just think of all the fun they would have moving those bureaus around.

NEWS for truck owners who need a new one now

Things Chevrolet has developed since the last time you bought to give you more for your money:

Double-wall construction. This feature of Chevrolet cabs and the Fleetside pickup body has two advantages. Insulation and sound-deadening material is sandwiched between the two layers of steel in the cab to give you more comfort; in the body, the lower inner wall acts as a buffer against load damage, preserving the outer appearance of the truck.

Suspension to fit the truck. Conventional half- and three-quarter-ton models have independent front suspension with variable rate coils in the rear. Variable rate coils do not "bottom out" as readily.

Mediums and heavies have I-beam suspension with variable-rate leaf springs. It automatically stiffens as the load increases—and vice versa. It means a smoother, flatter ride regardless of load, a better handling truck.

The right engine. Chevrolet never has been in better position to give you the type and size you need for maximum efficiency. Today there are many different capacities of gasoline and diesel

Chevrolet truck engines—four's, six's, V8's.

Stronger frames. Every conventional 1964 Chevrolet truck has a ladder-type frame. This type is more resilient, better able to give with the load and terrain. Its simple design also makes it easier to mount special bodies on the truck. Its riveted side rails are stronger.

Greater model selection. This time you're going to find it a simple matter to pick the exact type of Chevrolet truck for the kind of work you do. In delivery trucks, for instance, in addition to regular panels and pickups, we have eleven different sizes of ready-made walk-in vans, some with full-width rear doors.

Quality and value. Chevrolets today are a lot more truck than your money bought the last time, and yet the price tag is just about the same as 5 or 6 years ago. Call your Chevrolet dealer for information or for a demonstration.

Quality trucks always cost less!

Do YOU Have Children Under 21 Years of Age?

This Ad Will Astound You

I represent a Large Insurance Company that is establishing Centers of Influence among youngsters from birth to twenty years of age.

My company is willing to place $5,000.00 worth of Life Insurance on selected healthy children for only 15 per cent of the regular premium of Twenty Year Endowment. Only $35.25 per year or $3.15 per month. This is called Term Insurance.

The children receiving these policies may convert them into any type of Life Insurance they may desire, when they reach the age of twenty-one, at the regular adult premium. If they do not desire at that time to convert these policies, there is no obligation that they must continue this program.

The sole purpose, is to make these children boosters for the company, after they become an adult.

This is not a new idea, as this program has been used in the past and has paid off tremendous profits for several large companies, for the simple reason that past results have shown that over 80 per cent of these selected children out of appreciation have placed 100 per cent of their Health and Life Insurance with these companies, for their own families after becoming adults. This has been a tried and proven plan, and I am sure you will appreciate that we cannot publish the name of the company, until a personal interview can be arranged, because this definitely is a special contract, and would certainly interfere with our agents regular policies.

If you will fill out the coupon below, I will phone you for an appointment. There will be no obligation on your part what-so-ever, if you will agree that there is no obligation on our part to accept your child or children.

We will select over 1,000 children in the Antioch area. Selections will be based strictly on a health basis.

Please print and mail this coupon before October 22nd, and we will contact you as soon as possible.

Inside Antioch High

By Marilyn Gray

At 11:00 last Saturday night a royal coronation was held in Antioch. Cheryl Reid and Jeff Gates were crowned Queen and King of the Homecoming. Members of their court included: Seniors Sandra Maeder, Nancy Lindblad, Greg Gates, and John Lear; Juniors Toni Erne and Paul Lindblad; Sophomores Janet Sheehan and Dave Fabry; and Freshmen Betty Brinker and Bill Shedd.

The Homecoming Dance and Coronation were preceded by a colorful parade Saturday morning and successful football games that afternoon. In class float competition the senior class took first place and the freshmen took second. The Pep Club was the first place winner in club float competition.

The Antioch Sophomore team won the first game from the Elia-Vernon Bears by the lopsided score of 31-13. The Sequoit varsity coasted to an even easier win, 28-0. Antioch scored one touchdown in each quarter, and helped the Bears continue their scoreless season. Highlights of the game were an 84 yard touchdown run by Jeff Gates, and Sequoit Mike Davis' recovery of an Elia-Vernon fumble on the Antioch 1-yard line.

Last Thursday the Freshman football team gained its first win of the year by defeating Salem Central 18 to 13. The winning touchdown came on a pass to Fred Gras in the final seconds of play. The Freshmen lost to Elia-Vernon Monday 27-0.

This weekend the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) will be given to interested juniors and seniors at 9:00 Saturday morning. The PSAT is a two-hour examination, 60 minutes verbal and 60 minutes mathematical.

Today (Thursday) is the last day in the first six weeks grading period.

There will be no school in all Lake County tomorrow. Teachers will attend the North Lakes Division Teacher Institute at Waukegan.

Next Thursday night will be College Night. The program will begin at 8:00 p.m. The purpose of College Night, which was begun at Antioch last year, is to give students and parents a chance to visit with university representatives. Earlier this year juniors and seniors were asked to fill out a sheet naming the colleges they would be interested in attending. These sheets were used in determining the representatives to be present on College Night.

Now—buy a new electric dryer and save up to $60

In the next 60 days over 25,000 Chicagoland people will buy dryers—most will be flameless electric. Read why you should buy electric. Right now—and for a limited time only—Commonwealth Edison and Public Service Company, in cooperation with your dealer, offers you a chance to save as much as $60 on any new flameless electric dryer. (A cash bonus of $20 from Commonwealth Edison, plus up to $40 that you normally save when you buy an electric dryer instead of gas.) For the average family, this equals about 3 years of free drying!

And electricity is simplicity. Because there are few moving parts, electric dryers cost less to maintain.

And with no pilot light, your dryer costs nothing when not in use. Clothes dried electrically also come out fresher and cleaner because there are no fumes, flames, or products of combustion to mix with them. What's more, nothing dries clothes faster than today's electric dryers. (Only 26 to 30 minutes for a full load.)

See your dealer now for details. Satisfaction on any flameless electric dryer is guaranteed, of course.

Sequoit Gridders Sweep Homecoming Contests

By Howard Shepard

The Antioch Sequoits scored in every quarter in their annual homecoming tilt against Elia-Vernon Saturday afternoon and got back in the win column with a 26 to 0 victory.

Touchdowns by Paul Lindblad, John Morgan and Jeff Gates sparked the Sequoits to their first conference victory of the season. The Antioch win came without the aid of three regulars, Wally Henning, Paul Williams and Greg Gates. All three were sidelined for an infraction of the training rules.

Antioch's first score was set up when an Elia-Vernon punter attempted to kick from his own 15 yard line and missed the ball and the Sequoits fell on it deep in Bear territory.

Five plays later Paul Lindblad took it in for the touchdown from the two yard line. A pass attempt for the point after touchdown failed and the score at the end of the first quarter was 6 to 0.

Late in the second quarter, John Morgan returned a punt 55 yards for Antioch's second tally. The PAT failed and the score remained 13 to 0.

In the third quarter, Paul Lindblad racked up his second touchdown of the afternoon when he went 63 yards on a crossback to make it 18 to 0. The PAT was good and the Sequoits led 19 to 0.

Jeff Gates accounted for Antioch's final score and the longest run of the day when he broke over left guard, cut to the sideline and outran the defenders 84 yards for the touchdown. The PAT was good, completing the scoring for the afternoon.

Elia-Vernon's only threat came early in the 4th period when they had a 2nd down and goal to go on Antioch's 2 yard line. Antioch recovered a fumble on the next play and stopped the drive. Paul Lindblad was the work horse of the Sequoits, both offensively and defensively. Lindblad carried 14 times for 129 yards or 9.2 yards per carry. Paul was also impressive on defensive accounting for 11 tackles.

John Lear was lauded for his play at the quarterback spot. Filling in for the missing Wally Henning, Lear attempted 6 passes, completed 2 of them for 28 yards. "He mixed up his plays well," Coach Nelson said, "and did a real fine job for us."

The Sequoits will meet Warren here Saturday in their next game. Warren, fresh from upsetting a fine Grant team last week will be a good test for the Sequoits. Game time is set for 12:30.

SOPHOMORES WIN EASILY
The Antioch Sophomore squad put the frosting on the cake Saturday afternoon at the annual Sequoit homecoming celebration by defeating the Elia-Vernon Bears 31 to 13.

Fresh from a 14 to 12 victory over Grant the previous week, the Sequoit preps dominated play throughout, racking up five touchdowns and Antioch's first score came on 60 yard pass play, Tom Blackman to Mike Sterenz. Sterenz scored again a little later when he took a pass from Brad Ipsen and went in for the TD.

Runs of 30 yards and 20 yards by Rick Erickson and Bill Meyer respectively accounted for two more Antioch touchdowns. The final Sequoit tally came on a pass play, Ipsen to Sterenz. Dave Wardwell was lauded by coach Doug Risberg for his fine play at the linebacker post.

In the game against Grant a week ago, Tyrone Walls accounted for both Sequoit touchdowns and Bill Bonner provided the game winning extra points. The Sequoit sophs will meet the Warren preps in the curtain raiser at Antioch Saturday.

BOAT BOTTOMS HOLD KEY TO PERFORMANCE

A boat's performance depends on a combination of power and hull design and the most important feature of any hull is the shape of its bottom.

Pleasure boats today, aside from houseboats and some of the larger luxury yachts are of the semi-planing type which, at cruising speed or faster, largely ride over, rather than through the water. However, the bottoms of semi-planing hulls vary considerably in shape and the contours applied to a good boat are the result of its architect's intent. He may have planned a fast boat, a soft riding boat, or a rugged, rough water boat. All three features are desirable but they are seldom successfully combined in any one boat.

Features you should look for are the shape of the hull at the chine, the type of planing surface from the transom forward for approximately a third of the boat's length and the shape of the forefoot, that is the forward most section of the V-ed, semi-V-ed or rounded part of the boat that will be in the water when the boat is at rest.

Commonly, the under surface of a boat that rides through or on the top of the water is smooth. There are exceptions.

The true lapstrake hull starts its overlapping planking at the keel outward. The hull is made up of a series of longitudinal steps. The semi-lapstrake hull utilizes a smooth bottom with strakes or overlapped planking starting at the chine, where the bottom and the sides join.

There are other non-smooth bottoms—those with the athwartship breaks or steps, bottoms that have tunnels and deeply V-ed hulls with longitudinal planing strakes. A flat after-plane with chines at, or nearly at right angles to the sides of the boat is often a fast design, but it may be hard riding, and less safe in fast turns than a soft or rounded-chine hull. There is no all-purpose design.

The round-chine hull offers a smoother ride, though since it has more wetted surface, it will be slower.

The lapstrake hull is a desirable rough water boat since each strake tends to throw spray outward rather than allowing it to follow up the sides of the boat and blow back into the cockpit.

A blunt bow usually accompanies a hull designed for high speed. The blunt bow lifts over, rather than cuts through waves. It may give a jaw-jolting ride in rough going. The sharp prowed boat slices through waves and cushions impact shock.

Built-in hooks are usually designers' after-thoughts, corrections to hulls that fail to perform properly with their intended power. Wedges are an indication that the builder is offering a boat with a broad selection of power, and has corrected hull

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jahneke, rural Antioch, have returned from an event-filled week-end at Onarga, Ill. The Fun Fair and Bazaar November 15th and 16th. It will be held at the school both evenings with games for all age groups, prizes, and home-made articles for sale. Arrangements are still being made, according to the officers.

Lou Portalski returned Monday from a weekend trip to Cambridge, Maryland, where he along with Bob and Dick Flood attended a two-day racing regatta. Lou, driving the Greyhound, took a first for four races, making the boat the high point champion in the nation.

Vandalism occurred Sunday night at the grade school when an unknown person or persons, broke seven windows in the building. It's a sorry state of affairs when the only enjoyment a person can find is to destroy public property, especially a school building.

Onarga Military school, which their son attends, was formerly the Grand Prairie Seminary, and the alumni helped its Centennial celebration on October 5 and 6. Hundreds of graduates, from the year 1906 through 1982, were there from all over the United States, Canada and Mexico. The "G.P.S." a Methodist theological school, was started in 1883. In 1919, the late Lt. General L. E. Bittlinger brought about the transition of the GPS to the Onarga Military School, a non-sectarian military school. On Saturday, there was a resplendent two-hour long Centennial Parade, a Centennial Banquet, and a dance afterwards. A fried chicken picnic dinner, held at a local park, Sunday noon, was followed by an afternoon concert. The Olivet College Choir and Ensemble kept the audience in rapt attention for their 90 minute program. Then, to cap a perfect week-end, the OMS Cadets paraded on their school grounds, and were reviewed by U. S. Congressman Ahrens, and Lt. General R. Moses, while two army helicopters buzzed the area. The Jahnekes were thrilled to see their son,

School Patrol Gets New Orange Belts

The School Safety Patrol at the Oakland Grade school is the first in Antioch to display a new orange Safety Patrol belt distributed by the Chicago Motor Club.

The fluorescent orange glow belt has been produced to replace the traditional white Sam Browne belt.

G. W. Cavanagh, president of the motor club, said the new belt, with its orange fluorescent exterior, offers greater visibility.

"The Chicago Motor Club decided to adopt this new belt after three years of extensive testing. Experiments reveal that it offers greater visibility, is more durable, and is easier to keep clean than the white belts. Wherever tested, teachers, parents, and students were unanimous in their approval."

change get a modern Gas range

Enjoy more dependable cooking.

Thermostatically controlled top burners maintain the exact heat you set; prevent burned food, messy boil-overs.

Enjoy more convenient roasting.

Oven programmed cooking roasts food perfectly, keeps it warm and ready to serve for hours... automatically.

Enjoy cleaner, easier broiling.

With closed-door smokeless broiling the gas flame consumes greasy smoke that otherwise escapes into your kitchen.

Every kind of cooking becomes easier when you change to a modern gas range. The new Gold Star Award gas ranges, for example, offer more than 30 cooking features to please and pamper you; features no other ranges can equal.

You'll find thermostatically controlled top burners... ovens that light automatically, broil without smoke, roast foods to perfection and keep them ready to serve for hours, automatically.

You'll discover only modern gas ranges combine up-to-the-minute style and features with unequalled economy, speed and dependability to make your cooking simpler and surer than ever before!

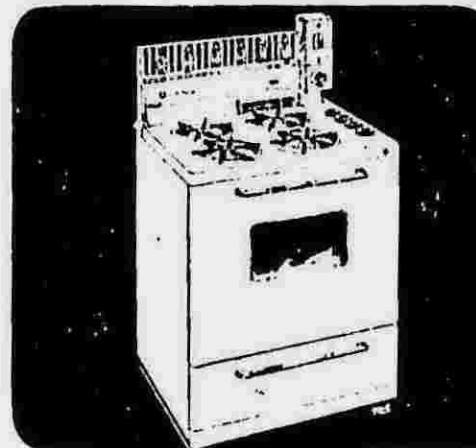

Choose your new Gold Star Award range now from the selection at your appliance dealer's or at your nearby Northern Illinois Gas Company showroom.

For a 5-8 lb. TableRite Rib Roast, preheat oven to 325° F. Place Roast in pan fat side up. If meat thermometer is used insert into thickest part. Do not let end touch bone. Follow directions on thermometer for desired doneness. Approximate time for rare 6-lb. roast, about 2 hours, 15 min. The argument on seasoning prior to cooking is pro and con. Garlic can be inserted between ribs. Cut up onion, ends of celery and leaves, along with carrot peelings, can be added to roast pan. To make tasty gravy, brown some flour in fat from roast. Add canned bouillon and water to make a gravy of desired consistency. Season if necessary. Serve with oven-browned potatoes and choice of vegetable.
